PEABODY HIGH SCHOOL

ALMA MATER

FOREWORD

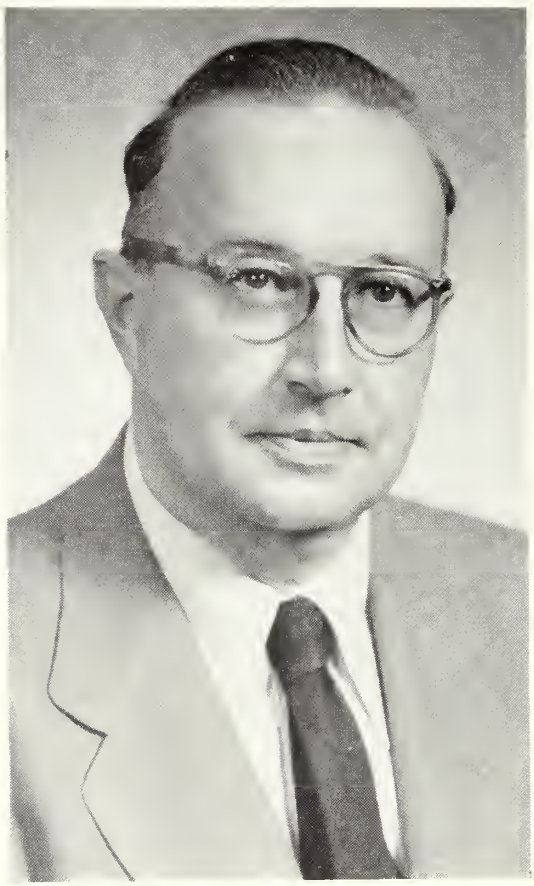
At this time it might be well to look over the road we have so recently travelled and draw from that experience some conclusions as to what the future holds for us.

Our rewards during these four years have been many and varied. Besides the benefits that we have received through education, we have received another group of benefits, not so obvious perhaps, but nevertheless of tremendous importance and influence upon our future lives. These things are the ability to get along with one another, and to understand better the word "sportsmanship." These are the intangible benefits that mark for good one's character.

We face the future with optimism, with courage, with determination. Our ambitions will take us far afield, but wherever we may be, we shall profit by the influence acquired during our associations with Peabody High School. Undoubtedly, we are now better equipped to follow our respective undertakings. These four years have been great stepping stones in our lives. Their influence will affect us forever.

In this year book we have tried to enclose a little of the enthusiasm and feeling of our four high school years. Our feelings are divided between pleasure and regret — pleasure in the achievement of four full years, regret in the separation from many companions. In order to bring back to us in future years many pleasant recollections, this year book has been assembled.

May its perusal in the days and years to come bring back for all of us many happy memories.



MR. D. EDWARD GORMAN

TO

Mr. D. Edward Gorman

Who has been the personification of the finest ideals of a true friend

Who has been, for four years, a guide and an inspiration to all of us

Who has shown on all occasions a genuine concern for our individual and collective welfare

Whose greatest contribution to us has been the example of his daily life and in his daily contacts with us

We, the Class of 1952, affectionately and gratefully dedicate

IN APPRECIATION

Now our thoughts turn to those who have played such an important part in our indiviudal lives. We refer, of course, to our teachers. What a task they must have had! What patience, tolerance and perseverance they have exemplified!

To all of them and for all of us may we write just a word. Emerson must thave thought of teachers when he wrote: "The reward of a thing well done is to have done it."

If that be true, then our teachers have indeed earned a reward, because they have certainly completed the task they so valiantly undertook some years ago.

And yet we feel that their reward will be even greater, because our expressions of gratitude will continue to be manifest throughout the years to come.

What success we may achieve, whatever accomplishments may become ours, they too shall participate, they too, will experience that thrill which comes from "something accomplished, something done," and we shall gladly share our triumphs with them.

We could not rightfully leave Peabody High School without expressing our gratitude to Mr. Frederick R. McManus who assisted us materially in the preparation of this "META". To Miss Mary Luz, our competent financial adviser, we extend our sincere thanks. We shall always remember with gratiture Mrs. Eva L. Haines who directed the art work of this year book. To Mr. Thomas Callahan, our class adviser, we shall ever be indebted for all that you have done for us during our senior year.

And now we think of Miss Mary Luz, Mr. Arthur V. Johnson, Miss Anna B. Carroll, Mr. Edward T. Donahue, and Mr. D. Edward Gorman, our homeroom teachers, who have helped us during our senior year. We know that we are indebted more to you than we could ever be able to repay. You have taken a personal interest in each of us as individuals and have done for the class of 1952, all that was possible to make our last year pleasant and profitable.

To Mr. Arthur Barry, our principal, we must also express our most sincere thanks. Often and often, in the days to come, when we are thrown more and more upon our own guidance and intuition, our minds will travel back to you, and we will see how many times you have helped us.

To the entire faculty, we sincerely thank you for all that you have so cheerfully done for each one of us, and trust that the years to come may demonstrate to your satisfaction as well as to our own, that you were really as successful as even your ambition could desire, in making of all of us — men and women.

DRAMATIC GUILD

The last of our four unforgettable years spent at P. H. S. has finally come to a close. The last page of our wonderful book of high school memoirs has been completed.

Top among the memorable events and activities were the fun and work and the friendships we found and shared in the Dramatic Guild.

The Dramatic Guild was founded in 1936 by D. Edward Gorman, a man whose patience, friendliness, complete knowledge of his work, and whole-hearted interest in his students made it possible for the Guild to grow into an organization of great popularity among the students.

In the scholastic year 1936-37 two plays were produced, "One Mad Night" and later in the year, "Another Mad Night" at the City Hall. At that time there was no organized guild and the casts consisted of boys and girls who signified their interest in dramatics.

It wasn't until 1939 that the first official meeting of the Dramatic Guild was held. At that meeting a Constitution was drawn up and officers were elected. There was an initial membership of sixty-five. The Guild steadily grew and several very successful plays were presented each year. The activities and plans of the Guild were temporarily suspended, however, during the war years while Mr. Gorman was in the service.

Upon his return the Guild once again came into being and in mid-December of 1947 presented its first production after its reorganization. Since then the Dramatic Guild has staged many successful plays — approximately two a year — the first usually a "blood-curdling" mystery and the second, a "Spring-fever" comedy.

Those of us in the class of '52 who have belonged to the Dramatic Guild will always have wonderful memories of the fun and excitement that were part of belonging to the organization. The productions we ourselves acted in, the trips we took to Boston to view the musicals playing there, the excursions the Guild took to Nantasket, and many, many more too numerous to mention here will always be memorable events remembered long after we are graduated.

Of all the activities we participated in, the plays we staged and were cast in were top-notch occasions for us. The excitement and fun at rehearsals (in the corridor outside 308, remember?), the forgotten lines and ad libs, the unposed snapshots of the cast, and the kibitzing that always caused us to miss a cue — was the work and play that each of us eagerly looked forward to. And then came final rehearsals on the stage itself.

It was then that the butterflies seemed to settle in our stomachs and if it hadn't been for the incomparable patience and good humor of Mr. Gorman, many a rehearsal would have ended before it had begun. Production night finally arrived — and regardless of rehearsals and stage fright — success was inevitable. Never to be forgotten were these fun-packed but hectic days for the cast and for the audiences that viewed the plays.

It is difficult to find words of appreciation for the innumerable pleasures and the wealth of experience that we have obtained in the Dramatic Guild of P. H. S. Those wonderful days of activity shall never be forgotten.

To Mr. Gorman, we, the Dramatic Guild members of the class of '52 give our whole-hearted thanks for being not only our Director and adviser — but also a wonderful and understanding friend as well.

GHOST WANTED

November 30, 1951

GHOST WANTED: Full time, healthful work, haunting lovely island home. Apply Ramshead Rock.

Such was the advertisement placed in the paper by Ginger Stormgay (but unknown to her sister Gale) as a method to cure her grandmother of a predilection for voodooism and for the companionship of Professor de Vallan and his strange assistant, Madam Zolga.

It was this same advertisement that prompted two unemployed young men, Hugo Bromley and his friend Jeff Hall, to apply for the job. In the course of events the four young people plan for Hugo to impersonate Simon Gore, a fisherman mysteriously drowned in order to prove that the Professor and Madam Zolga are fakers. But plans backfire when Simon Gore's manifestation is arranged by others than the four young plotters — before they can put their own plan to work.

Plans are further complicated by the disappearance of the Sheriff and the Stormgay's houseman Hatcher's, insistance on being allowed to leave the island.

Things are cleared up however, when Jeff accidently discovers a secret passageway in the old house and the reason for Hugo's insistence on leaving the island. The new uncovery leads to the discovery that the Professor and Madam Zolga are actually Government agents (which Granny know all along) and that the little island was being used by a foreign spy, Hugo) as a hide-out and listening post. The island is restored to its former complacency and everyone "lives happily ever after".

"HEADED FOR EDEN"

May 22, 23, 1952

Paradise—second right Heavenly Bliss—third left

Next stop—Peabody High School on our trip in which we were "Headed for Eden".

Two of the most memorable evenings of the Spring season were spent in the auditorium of P. H. S. For the first time in the history of the Dramatic Guild, the talented young actors and actresses stepped before the foot-lights to present to their audience a 3 act comedy entitled "Headed for Eden" — for two successive evenings.

Ours was the fun and frolic of rehearsals and stagefright and, of course, those forgotten lines ! ! ! This had to be the sure-fire success it was, not only because it was to benefit the Senior Slass as a whole, but also because it was to be the last performance of the Dramatic Guild under the incomparable direction of Mr. D. Edward Gorman.

Mrs. Skipworth's rooming house was shared by six young girls (and Imogene, the maid) — each with her own personality and individual problems. When Kate's brother Bob is accused of a crime which he did not commit, all problems are forgotten and thoughts turned to helping a fellow boarder. The adventures leading up to proving Bob's innocence contain everything — from a marriage to the laundry man's being locked in the kitchen closet.

The cast, composed entirely of Seniors, follows:

Mrs. Oral Skipworth	Ann Marie Tierney
Imogene	Ann Marie Higgins
Hank	James Lapointe
Dorothy Brill	Jacquelyn Bongette

Thousands Acclaim Return Of Lecturer

KOHUT Airfield — Today marked the return of world famous lecturer and educator, JAMES CARTER. As Mr. CARTER stepped down the ramp, an attempt to photograph him by Crystalgazer photographer ELAINE MENIATES was blocked by his faithful body-guard, JEAN PARE. To avoid further annoyance by the press MR. CARTER instructed the pilot, MARGY SOUZA, to taxi to within leaping distance of his waiting limousine.

In an exclusive interview MISS PARE disclosed to our reporter that MR. CARTER had just spent three months at the South Pole educating penguins in the principles of nuclear fission.

Greatest Discovery Since Radium

Safari, Africa — After years of diligent search for the lost Ubangi diamond mine, explorer ROBERT HAIG ably assisted by ALVAN RIKKOLA and MARY VISTORINO, accidently discovered the legendary elephant graveyard. Within a few hours the Atlantic Cable buzzed with the news. Very shortly afterward, millionaire meat packer, EMMANUEL PAPANICKOLAS of the Wepackanything Meat Co., boarded a plane for Africa. Pen and contract in hand, MR PAPANICKOLAS rushed to the explorer's camp. At the conclusion of lengthy negotiations it was agreed that the elephant meat should be transported exclusively to the PAPINICKOLAS packing houses by the SONIA SEDLIER Air Transit Company.

Bitter Dispute Continues

Today Supreme Court Justice ROLAND CHERWIK opened a new hearing in the case of MCCARTHY vs. MORRISSEY whom we all know as the chief executives of the philanthropic association, M&M Enterprises. The case has been carried from court to court since last year and now it is up to the Supreme Court to settle the dispute. Each year the surplus capital of M&M Enterprises is awarded to some worthwhile charity. It seems that since the sum was a great deal larger than usual this year, MR. MORRISSEY insister upon investing it in Amalgamated Tooth Picks, but his associate, Mr. McCARTHY, having nearly been strangulated in his early years by a toothpick splinter, was opposed to this plan. The charitable humanitarian, MR. McCARTHY, was determined that the money should go to the society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Under-Privileged Earthworms. The accusations flew fast and furiously, and Court Stenographer PAT CAVANAUGH, had to use two pencils in each hand to keep up with the strenuous pace.

Washington Bound

Our nation's capital was invaded by a band of crusaders led by LEO QUIRK. They marched boldly down Pennsylvania Avenue, their banners waving, their bugles sounding. They stomped into the office of Price Stabilizer DONNIE TSALTAS, and presented their petition for a raise in women's skirts. MISS TSALTAS promised QUIRK'S supporters, ROBERT DABRIEO, GUS McMAHON, JOE KULESZA, PAUL LUNDERGAN, that she would give the matter due consideration.

Raid On "Golden Greek" Nightclub

Walnut Street — Last night Peabody's barbary coast was rocked by a spectacular surprise raid on NICKY GREVELIS' popular "Golden Greek" nightclub. Rookie cop JAMES MAHONEY and his fearless riot squad found the nightclub at the height of its activities. However, they very graciously allowed songstress CAROL GRIFFIN and her accompanist ANN HIGGINS to complete their song "Five Minutes More". Police made a mad dash for the roulette wheel, and came up with chips, money, dice, plus MISS KUPREANCE. They had a difficult time removing JOAN'S foot from under the leg of the roulette table where it was being used to tilt the machine.

Among the persons booked at precinct 1063 were City Solicitor HENRY KAMINSKI, Professor of Ethics MISS C. STICKNEY and the "Golden Greek" hostess MISS MARJORIE LAKE. The trio was released on $2.91 bail, until Judge NORMA SILVA could be located.

Rain Almost Halts Concert

In spite of torrential rains yesterday afternoon nearly half the expected audience attended the American debut of SENOR ACGUINALDO O'CONNELL, Pianist extraordinary, which was held in the Papillion Memorial Park. SENOR O'CONNELL was indignant at the small turn-out and refused to perform. The disappointed and angry crowd was ready to demand a refund when SENOR O'CONNELL'S protege, the aristocratic COUNTESS RUTH BORNSTEIN from Brazil, stepped forward and offered her rendition of "When You Say 'I Beg Your Pardon', I'll Come Back To You." To prevent COUNTESS BORNSTEIN from drowning in the afternoon rain PAT SANGER held an umbrella over the piano and the COUNTESS. MISS SANGER is also SENOR O'CONNELL'S trustworthy assistant who transports and simonizes his priceless, custom-built, folding grand piano.

First Successful Upside-Down Landing

BOB CATON was acclaimed as a pioneer in aviation for the first upside down landing in the history of flying. Interested scientists were disappointed when BOB was unable to explain the details of his landing. The co-pilot THOMAS MORAN is the only person who knows the exact procedure, but as a result of this landing he was slightly jarred. MR. MORAN'S psychiatrist DR. ADELAIDE SACCONE has been trying in vain to restore him to his former self. As soon as DR. SACCONE can remedy his peculiar habits of walking on his hands, talking backwards, and refusing to drink anything but high test gasoline, she will allow him to confer with aviation experts.

Circus Comes To Town

This morning at 3:30 the H. AUEN Circus arrived in the height of fashion. The sleeping city was soon awakened by the blare of trumpets and the sweet strains of MARY SIDERAKIS at the caliope. Startled faces of citizens appeared at every window and soon the whole town had gathered to cheer the colorful spectacle. Leading the circus parade came the ever famous baton twirler, BARBARA COMEAU. The crowd was very disappointed when fire eater DOROTHY BOURQUE failed to appear because of a sore throat and acute indigestion. From the top of the largest elephant, barker EILEEN BURKE distributed thousands of handbills.

As the parade approached City Hall, Mayor EMMANUEL TSOUVALAS jumped from a taxi in his pajamas, grabbed the key to the city from his secretary, BARBARA TONGUE, and between yawns presented it by mistake to the glamorous bareback rider DOROTHY EMERY thinking that she was MR. AUEN. The circus will remain here for two weeks before it continues its tour of the country.

Revision Of Calendar

An attempt to revise the calendar by Professor FREDERICK HUNT was met with numerous protests from Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Public. Miss JUDITH HAZEL, Professor HUNT'S secretary, revealed this morning that the professor was motivated by a desire for two birthdays each year.

Fire At Neighborhood Kindergarten

During a lecture by RICHARD GELOTTI, parent psychologist at the kindergarten operated by SELMA ERLICH and PATRICIA LECAIN, several tiny tots were driven to the street when the flame under the pablum got out of control. Further damage to surrounding buildings was avoided by JOANNE BELL, a telephone operator, who spotted the blaze from her post and alerted the fire department.

Plane Upsets Plans For Supper

JEAN ROBERTS, a resident of this city, was obliged to vacate her home and eat her supper at a nearby diner when a small mail plane, piloted by WILLIAM MORONEY crashed into her kitchen. Neither MORONEY nor the co-pilot, MARY PETERSON was seriously injured.

Debate Of The Century

At a heated debate, educators JAMES QUINLAN and PETER FELDMAN argued the value of Universal Military Training in grade school. Although the debate continued far into the night, no winner was declared as Judge JANICE QUINT fell asleep.

Crash At Local Speedway

An unseasonable sheet of ice on the ERNEST MINOT speedway was blamed for a head-on collision. Driver ANN SAROWSKY told the press that her car skidded, swerved, and collided with another car driven by CAROL SAWYER. Fortunately neither of the charming misses was injured. Both young ladies, however, have placed orders for new cars.

Flagpole Sitter Complains

ROGER BROUGHTON was nearly persuaded to abandon his perch atop the flagpole adjoining the property of opera star FRANCES JOHNSON. He claimed that MISS JOHNSON warbled continuously during the wee hours of the morning and disturbed his sleep. A friend saved the day by providing BROUGHTON with ear plugs.

Jackpot Winner

In response to the $64.00 question: "At what time does the 8:00 P. M. train leave?", LOUIS BERNSTEIN replied 8:05. Mistress of Ceremonies, STELLA RABCHENUK, declared that the answer was correct since the train was always five minutes late.

Society News

By ETTA KETT

At the Colonial Estate of Miss CAROLINE MELOTA the gathering place of famous celebrities, our reporters were privileged to cover the largest party of the season. The guest of honor was Miss THERESA KOWALSKI, U. S. Ambassador to Poland, who entertained the guests with amusing anecdotes of Embassy life. Among those present were such dignitaries as the international play-boy, WILLIAM MAISTRELLIS, MISS MARLENE PICKMAN, who just returned from a command-performance in Morocco, and Secretary of War, SHIRLEY MARTIN. Ample protection was afforded by DOROTHY MUSE, BEVERLEY PIERCE and NADGA PROKOPOVICH, members of the Secret Service who were disguised as acrobatic performers.

ICE SHOW

JAMES MCDONALD, director of the JOANNE GEORGES Charity Foundation, expressed his gratitude to Miss NANCY DIACHISIN who sponsored a successful ice show at the HARRIET SCOTT Skating Arena. Among the star performers were the terrific trio, RUTH SHMASE, JOAN SCHRAMM and DONALD SHEPARD, who thrilled the spectators with their death defying steeple chase and pole-vaulting. When asked the secret of their success Miss SHMASE replied that they owed it all to the suction cups at the end of their poles.

BANQUET

Photographs of the annual S.P.C.A. banquet may be obtained from MARIE COOMBS at her studio.

The highlight of the evening was the lighting of the anniversary candle by toastmistress, CAROL COOMBS. As the candle was ignited, SYLVIA KOSTOPOLOUS and her partner DONALD ST. GERMAINE burst out of the cake and led the guests in singing, "If We'd Known You Was Comin', We'd 'A Baked A Cake".

ART EXHIBIT

First prize at the exhibition at the HAROLD DUNTON Art Gallery was awarded to Miss EDITH BARRELL for her charming portrait of the socially prominent, MARION GASS.

The World Of Fashion

At a pre-season showing, French designer, HOWARD ALEXUK exhibited his selection of Spring chapeaux which were modeled by Miss RUTH LITTLE.

To obtain these individual creations, contact DAVID MURPHY at the ALEXUK Salon.

Today New York had its first glimpse of a selection of Paris-inspired creations that will find their way into Milady's Spring wardrobe. America's foremost fashion expert returned aboard her private plane with trunkfuls of fabulous designs from the famous houses of Mlls. JOAN "ADRIAN" NICHOLS, DOROTHY "SCHAIPARELLI" MOORE, and STELLA "DIOR" SAXONIS.

NEW DRAMA OPENS

A delightful mella-drama entitled "The New Light" has attracted much well deserved comment during its New England premier here at the CAROL JACKMAN Memorial Theater. The play is based on the prize winning novel of the same name by KATHLEEN SCARNEGIE.

Starring MARY JOAN BALLENTINE as a pioneer in progressive education, it is the true to life saga of one woman's crusade against the antiquated methods of the "old school".

The able director PAUL HIGGINS has selected JEAN JULIAN to portray Agnes, Miss BALLENTINE'S associate. This role will be an excellent opportunity for the young character actress to establish herself on the legitimate stage.

Predictions In The Sports World

By MARY GERMANO & STELLA DELP

1. ANDREA CHIGAS will top the League with the highest bowling score.

2. According to wrestling promoter, JOHN GIBBONS, RICHARD LEBREUX is certain to top Champion DAVID BRISSETTE on the mats next Saturday night. The contest will be universally televised.

3. Reports from DANIEL FERREIRA'S training camp indicates that he is ready to attempt his channel crossing.

ALL-TIME RECORDS ESTABLISHED

The U. S. won three of the most sought after Olympic titles. The U. S. Hockey team was led to victory by their co-captains, ROBERT GRAYTON and JOHN DONOVAN, in their thrilling contest against the Red Ubangies.

The U. S. was overjoyed when after years of unsuccessful attempts our knitting team coached by JOHN "CABLE" SEMENUK took first place in the finals. The members of the team, JOSEPH FABRIZIO and HAROLD McDONALD were very pleased to hear that their teammate, PETER ROUMELIOTIS, had topped GEORGE THORPE'S record with the terrific speed of 420 knit strokes per minute.

Once again STEVEN SAROWSKY, pride of the U. S., brought home the Tiddly Wink championship title. Manager BARBARA KARRA disclosed that next year MR. SAROWSKY will be ineligible since he is turning professional.

Advice To The Lovelorn

By DANIEL MANEY

Q. Dear D. M.,

I like cats, but my husband doesn't like cats. He claims that our house isn't big enough for the cats and him. He also objects to cats sleeping on the foot of the bed. Should I give up my cats or my husband?

Confused, DOROTHY HARRIS

A. Dear Confused,

How big are these cats?

Q. Dear D. M.,

I had a spat with my fiancé. He stomped out of the house. Should I write a note of apology or should I wait until he calls? He has been gone for seven years. Do you think anything is wrong?

Anxious, EVELYN CHIPMAN

A. Dear Anxious,

By all means wait until he calls.

Q. Dear D. M.,

My wife is forever rearranging the furniture. It is getting very confusing. Every time I complain she gets hysterical. What should I do?

In a dilemma, DANIEL WIGGIN

A. Dear In a dilemma,

Nail down your furniture.

Winners in the recipe contest!

1st Prize—Dear B. A.,

Here is my recipe for delicious peanut butter sandwiches. Just take one pound salted peanuts, crush, and add butter. Spread mixture on bread with a stainless steel knife. The subtle taste surprise is the six garlic buds ground into each sandwich.

Sincerely,
ROBERT NELSNIK

2nd Prize—Dear B. A.,

I am submitting my recipe for tangy boiled water. Place one cup luke warm water into glass baking dish, place under slow broiler, sprinkle with salt and serve piping hot. Serves four.

Sincerely,
BARBARA CREAN

3rd Prize—Dear B. A.,

My favorite dish is my grandmother's recipe for delicious roasted eggs. Place four eggs in an enameled pie plate. Smother with tomato sauce and mushrooms. Pre-heat oven to 75 degrees and roast four hours. Remove eggs, pour sauce over steak and serve.

Sincerely,
ANN LIGHTIZER

Police Blotter

Yesterday was an exciting day for our local police department, when Inspector BERNIE RICHARDS from the FBI questioned TERRENCE PIOTROWICZ about his alleged over payment of his income tax. MR. PIOTROWICZ' only comment was "Forget it! Forget it!"

Another major incident which almost led to an uncontrollable mass riot, was a complaint against ANN LAWLOR and her Spitz dog, Henry, who viciously attacked our well known mailman, JOHN LANE.

Another complaint which will be scheduled for the next session of the civil court was issued by MARILYN WALLMAN. MISS WALLMAN tripped over a detour sign and fell head first into a manhole left open by WILLIAM MILLER of the Public Works Dept.

OUR JUNIOR PROM

CLASS DIARY

We've spent four years in the classes and corridors of P. H. S. and now that these happy, carefree years are coming to an end we can turn back the hands of time and bring the highlights of these years into focus.

As Freshmen, we were all wrapped up in Civics Club affairs, plus those dreaded Freshmen Departmental Exams.

Then as Sophomores we took over as "big wheels" of the Civics Club and we helped to make successful their assemblies and dances.

Another step forward, and then we were Juniors. A Junior is an upper classman, and we were just that when we held our class elections, became Spanish Club members, made the Junior Frolic a hit, and took honors with our first formal, the Junior Prom.

But the most important year of our stay at P.H.S. began on September 5—When the old school bells summoned us back and we found ourselves to be the "big cheeses". V.I.P.'s (so we thought)

September 14—Noise! You said it! The first cheering assembly of the season was held today and the rafters echoed as we all tried to outdo each other.

September 17—Today we filled out the ballots and showed our favorites to be. President, Paul Higgins; Vice-President, Donnie Tsaltas; Secretary, Nancy Correia; Treasurer, Leo Quirk. Home-room representatives: 101, Nancy Diachisin; 102, Jennie Guzowski; 103, Jeanne Pare; 104, Barry O'Connell; 105, John Semenuk.

September 19—Mr. Mills, a representative of the Junior Achievement program, spoke to the upper classmen (ahem!) to interest us in this fine organization.

October 11—This morning the first assembly sponsored by the Civics Club was held. Mr. William Haaker, a noted pianist, entertained us with several selections and impressed us with his talent and personality.

In the evening, the eve of Columbus Day, we enjoyed an informal dance. Hay, cornstalks,, dungarees, sport shirts, and Manuel's Black and White Orchestra all combined to make our Senior Barn Dance the best ever!

October 15—Just think, we have celebrities among us! Today our class officers had their pictures taken for the Boston papers. Oh, I tell you — it's good news today!

October 24-25-26—Why so glum, chum? Bi-monthlies How could we forget!? But now that they are all over and done with, we can breathe a sigh of relief because they are an evil we can now forget.

November 1—The Civics Club took a bow for their second assembly of the year. This time, Mr. William Skadden spoke to us on human problems and the road ahead. Mr. Skadden displayed a rich sense of humor, but at the same time he drove his point across to us and gave us something to think about.

November 2—Give a yell! Give a cheer! Today we assembled with our peppy cheerleaders, Coaches Bezemes and Donahue, and Capt. Bob Anderson to inspire the football team to defeat dear old Salem.

Tonight the Civics Club took over to present a dance in gay Hallowe'en atmosphere.

November 4—The traditional Peabody-Salem game . . . . (We tried though!)

Although we had high hopes for victory and were a little downhearted after our loss to Salem, we know that there will be other years when the Blue and White will emerge triumphant. Better days are coming!

November 16—Tonight we all joined the Juniors to make their Frolic a huge success.

How we all looked forward to the good times we knew we would have at all the socials here at P. H. S.!

November 19—Those "items" were distributed! Yes, I mean those evil things sometimes referred to as report cards.

November 21—We trotted home at 11:30 today to begin our "turkey" week-end. Those four days really hit the spot because they refreshed us so that we could carry on through the few remaining weeks util the Xmas vacation.

November 28—Today we voted on caps and gowns for graduation. Wow! Graduation is creeping up on us.

This was also the day for the annual Observer Assembly. The Honorable Arthur McCarthy enceed and he introduced his fellow-workers for the Observer: the Editor, Thelma Levine, and the Circulation Manager, Carole Sawyer. Entertainment was provided by Alice Glencross, the Gibley sisters, and Thelma Levine. The program came to an end when a film entitled "Wings Over Hawaii" was shown.

November 30—All the Hollywood talent scouts rushed to the P. H. S. Auditorium when the Dramatic Guild presented its first play of the year, "Ghost Wanted". Thanks to the efforts of Mr. D. Edward Gorman, the director, and our own student actors and actresses, this spine-tingling performance was a smash hit!

December 3, 4, 5, 6, 10—Our Freshman buddies were blessed with Departmental Exams. Attention Freshmen! . . . If you saw us smiling at your misery, you'll pardon us, we hope!

December 4—Graduation seemed a little more of a reality when the "elite" (that's us) were measured for caps and gowns. You can bet your boots that shoulders went back and heads went up that day!

December 14—The Christmas season was ushered in with our Christmas Ball. Queen Ethel Kochilaris and King Peter Pramas presided over this successful affair and helped make it one we shall never forget.

December 21—Today the first grade pupils of the Carroll School and children of the faculty members came to P.H.S. to meet St. Nick, alias Mr. Thomas McCarthy.

Then the much needed vacation.

January 15-17—Mid-year Exams — — It's true that those were our last, but of the terror they have caused us for the past four years, need I say more?

January 18—The auditorium took on a Spanish atmosphere as the Senors and the Senoritas of the Spanish Club presented their Winter Frolic.

January 25—Tonight another was added to our list of successful socials. The boys of our Vocational School packed the auditorium for their annual dance, with Manuel's Black and Whites furnishing the sweet strains.

January 30—This was the deadline for class pictures and by now all Seniors have had the chance to pose and to say "cheese". By the way, these pictures are to go in our "Rogues Gallery", otherwise known as the Meta.

February 5—Today was another historic and fateful day in the life of every P.H.S. student — — REPORT CARDS.

February 6—The Civics Club provided us with some good listening with their third assembly of the year. Miss Loween Cook, an accomplished marimba player, and Mr. Clair Musser, a talented pianist, did the honors and favored us with several selections.

February 15 Cupid and his bow and arrow descended on P.H.S. and all those who attended the Valentine Dance under the auspices of the Civics Club.

February 21—The Washington, Lincoln, Peabody Assembly was presented with Carole Sawyer as Mistress of Ceremonies and under the supervision of Mr. D. Edward Gorman. Mary Costas, Patricia Shoer, and Arthur McCarthy spoke on the honored men and the musical end of the program was furnished by the P.H.S. Orchestra, Alice Glencross, and Jane Doyle.

February 22—Off we went for a week's vacation! After all the hard work we had done since the Christmas vacation, we certainly needed that time off to rest our weary bones.

March 6—The Civics Club again took honors when they presented Miss Grace Keene, a gifted actress. Miss Keene enthralled us with excerpts from "Mama Knows Best".

March 12 What, another assembly? We must have done something to deserve such generosity as this. That's right, and this time the assembly took the form of a newsreel movie.

March 17—On this St. Patrick's Day the Civics Club presented its last assembly of the year. The Philip Yung Lees charmed us with their program based on the customs, language, music, and education of the Chinese people.

March 24-27, 31—These were hectic days for the Freshmen when they had to undergo another set of Departmental Exams.

April 1—April Fool's Day or not, all hands were on deck for the movie, The Restoration of Williamsburg, which was shown to the entire student body through the courtesy of Mr. Lawrence Cuddire.

April 21—It won't be long now — that's what we all thought as we looked at our report cards for the third time this year. Only one more marking period and then — who knows?!

April 24—A greatly anticipated day! This morning, before the entire student body, Mr. Barry announced the Honor Students of '52. Our valedictorian will be Thelma Levine: salutatorian, Carole Sawyer: first speaker, Joan Ballentine: second speaker, Eunice Singerman. The other four to receive George Peabody Medals are: Jacqueline Bongette, Carol Coombs, William Moroney, and Adelaide Saccone. Those to receive honorable mention on the big day are: Nancy Correia, Carole Jackman, Robert Haig, Lydia Lourenco, Arthur McCarthy, Elaine Meniates, Marcia O'Brien, Stella Rabchenuk, Benita Rimer, Ruth Shmase, Marjorie Souza, and Jane Tucker. Congratulations to all for their hard work during their years at P.H.S.!

April 25—The camera clicked all day long today as we all posed for various pictures. Among the photos taken were candid shots of our famous Senior home-rooms, our Meta and Observer Staffs, as well as of all our school clubs. Aren't we the photogenic things, though?

April 28—May 5—Our Spring vacation and the last one we'll have until the big one. According to the charts in the home-rooms we'll have only nineteen more days when we return on the fifth. That's not long, is it?

May 16—The Seniors-to-be got off to a good start when their first formal, the Junior Prom, proved highly successful. Congratulations kids, and here's hoping that you'll have as much fun in your Senior year as we have had! !

May 22-23—Red letter days for the whole school as the Dramatic Guild presented a top-notch production, "Headed For Eden", for the benefit of the Senior Class! Those who starred and found themselves in the spotlight were: Marilyn Wallman, Essa Singerman, Carole Sawyer, Jane Tucker, Marlene Pickman, Jackie Bongette, Joan Ballentine, Anne Marie Higgins, Selma Erlich, Anne Marie Tierney, Haskell Albert, Arthur McCarthy, Louie Bernstein, Jimmy Lapointe, Billy Moroney, and Peter Feldman.

The Class of '52 owes a debt of gratitude to Mr. Gorman and the Guild for their financial assistance which will make the Banquet and the Reception realities.

May 29—The last day of school ! !

June 3—Our very own class banquet — with all its gaiety and the customary reading of the prophecy and will. We are at the doorstep of graduation and in a few days all these happy events will be merely memories.

June 8—This is it, the day for which we have waited so long! But now that it is upon us, it's odd how it all seems so happy and sad, at the same time. Our caps and gowns and our diplomas are symbols of one of the most important milestones of our lives. Yes, it's truly a magic word —

GRADUATION

June 10—Our Senior Reception — On what pleasanter note could we have gathered for the last time as the class of '52? The Reception puts the finishing touch to our list of cherished memories that we have gathered from P.H.S., and now we are ready to go on to heights unknown.

CLASS WILL

As we, the "dramatis personnae" of 1952, are about to take our departure from the sacred portals of our hallowed alma mater, Peabody High School, in Essex County, Commonwealth of Massachusetts, we have taken it upon ourselves to shower down upon some of our successors those priceless possessions which we have accumulated during these four happy years. Thus, we the Class of 1952, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour. May our recipients be worthy of the honors conferred upon them!

We take with us Jim Carter, our class chauffeur, leaving the junior class without a ride.

Sonia Sedlier leaves her friendly manner to Mickey Aiken.

Teddy Angelakis leaves his hope that the Red Sox will win the pennant eventually.

Jean Roberts and Nancy Diachisin cede their white cheering uniforms to Virginia Pappacostas, Noreen Vagge, and Joann Saltzman.

Nick Grevelis leaves his zoot suit to Fred Bougas.

Ann Latusky leaves her large wad of gum to any Junior with iron jaws.

Arthur McCarthy leaves his popularity to another backslapping, handshaking politician.

Marilyn Wallman wills her winning ways to Mary Costas.

Red Gibbons and Bernie Richards leave the Gardner Park corner to Marty Freeman and Jim Leblanc.

Stella Rabchenuk bequeaths her warm smile to Barbara Jardine.

Paul Higgins leaves his perplexing problems of the class to next year's class president.

Barbara Crean bestows her athletic skill on "Sis" Eager.

Dan Maney leaves his set of golf clubs to George DeMerritt with brotherly affection.

Essa Singerman leaves her acting ability to a sister thespian.

Bill Maistrellis wills his sunny disposition to a deserving member of the class of '53.

Jack Lawless wills his basketball proficiency to "Bubbles" Meniates.

Bill Miller leaves Alex Kravchuk to worry the teachers.

The "Papillon Society" leave their knee socks and white bucks to next year's changing fad.

Dave Price wills his crooning power to Paul Puska.

Ann Higgins leaves her quips and pranks to a deserving Junior.

Ernie Minott bequeaths his wardrobe to Miles Cares.

Marcia O'Brien leaves her sparkling personality to Shirley Spencer.

Jim Lapointe bequeaths his personal brand hair tonic to Carl Seaburg.

Caroline Melota leaves her violin to Rae Kelley, who is switching from the trumpet.

Theresa Kowalski does not leave Pat Splaine to any grasping junior.

Bobby Parsons imparts his ivory-handled pool stick to Sam Kerkorian.

Howie Alexuk wills his nimble footed blades to Louie O'Keefe.

Judy DeMerritt leaves her gift of gab to Anna Matvichuk.

"Ducky" McDonald leaves his dizzy height to Jerry Delucca.

Anna Vontzalides wills the lunch counter to "Binky" Makites.

Joe Marshall regretfully leaves his Psysics book in 307 to any prosperous looking Junior.

Danny Ferriera leaves his "playing the field" to Bob Carpenter.

Carol Coombs wills her dimples to Shirley Marshall.

Bob Brown leaves his red suspenders to Bill Karolides.

Harold Dunton leaves his assorted collection of ties to Jim Kiley.

Mimi Sabin leaves her pony tail.

Peter Feldman leaves his "Manly Manual of Manners" to a stately gentleman of the Junior Class.

Donnie Tsaltas, our popular veep, leaves her abounding energy to any vivacious junior.

Nancy Correia leaves her dancing shoes to Barbara Murphy.

John Lane leaves his late slips to any Junior going into the wall paper business.

Besides these enforced gifts, we leave — not of necessity, but of our own free will — our tender memories of our pleasant associations together. All the rest and residue of our property, whatsoever and wheresoever, of what nature, kind and quality soever it may be, and not herein before disposed of (after paying our debts), we give and bequeath to our beloved Principal, for his use and benefit absolutely, and to be disposed of for the good of the Class of '53 as he may see fit.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, We, the Class of 1952, the testators, have to this our will, written on one sheet of parchment, set our hands and seal this twentieth day of June, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and fifty two.

FOOTBALL

Now that the gridiron is a picture of solitude, we can look back upon the partly successful football season of P.H.S. The hard-fighting Tanners followed a definite pattern in all of their games, setting a fast, rugged pace in the first half, then tapering off in the final periods. Throughout the entire season, the team met well-balanced and heavier opponents, but the boys played all their games with the hearts of champions.

Hard luck accompanied Coach Bezemes' boys from the beginning of the season to the end. Almost every game found the Peabody Eleven confronting situations like these . . . . key men benched because of injuries, touchdowns called back, and time run out when we had the ball on the one foot line. Breaks like these made the fans think that the fighting spirit, a tradition of the Tanners, would be lost. Coach Bezemes kept the team's hopes alive, however, and the following game would always prove to be a display of clean, hard-fighting football on the part of our representatives on the gridiron.

Wins over Revere and Lawrence kept our season from total disaster and after an impressive win over the Amusement City, the hopes of the fans were boosted along with those of the team. A much larger following than was expected from Peabody showed up at the next game which was at Gloucester. Tanner supporters had hopes that the Revere game would start a win streak for the home team, but the Fishermen smeared the hope-filled picture. In the Lynn English game, the first half was high-lighted by the aggressiveness and alertness of Peabody, but no spark for the fire could be found in the second half. The Tanners record showed but two wins for the "51" season; nevertheless, this is the best record posted by the team since 1947. Each year the Tanners are improving, thanks to the diligent work of Coach Johnny Bezemes and his assistants, Coach Ed Donahue and Bill Healy.

In spite of the record, Howie Alexuk was chosen as a member of the Lynn Item All-Stars for his great work in passing and running, and the team as a group showed signs of brighter seasons to come.

HOCKEY

This year's hockey team gave P. H. S. a championship for the first time since 1944 when our football team came out on top. An undefeated-untied season on the ice this year placed P. H. S. far out in front of second place Gloucester.

Coach Carlin kept the boys filled with that fighting spirit needed for a championship team and every game was sparked by the fast skating and passing of the front line charges.

Our Co-Capts. Bob Grayton, Howie Alexuk and Roger Broughton were the "spark plugs" of the team. John Donovan, Bob Caton, Ed Rennick, Ralph Broughton and Rolly Cherwek, all seniors, were key men in the eleven game battle.

At the beginning of the season, the Blue and White beat Lynn Classical in a tight 3-2 game. The Saugus and Revere games went rather easily for the Tanners but the next game proved to be the toughest of the season. Although we were without the service of Howie Alexuk and Luke McHugh, two great goals by Bobby Grayton put us out in front at the final buzzer by the score of 2-1. The next seven games found the Tanners up to par and a new record was set by goalie Harry Batchelder with seven straight shutouts. In each of these games the defensemen played a terrific game. Roger Broughton and Larry McIntire proved to be two of the best defensemen in the North Shore League.

Under Coach Carlin's guidance the P.H.S. hockey squad turned into an agressive, cooperative team. The team played as a unit and accurate passing and shooting kept the Tanners ahead all season.

This year's team broke the Gloucester winning streak over the Peabody Six. We trounced the Fishermen by a score of 3-0. Many penalties were called in this game and hard-checking on the part of both teams throughout the game highlighted the night's action. A great crowd followed the Tanners all season and cheered them on to the championship.

This year's All-Star team has placed Harry Batchelder in the nets, Roger Broughton and Larry McIntire on defense, and Butch Grayton and Howie Alexuk in the front line. Coach Charlie Carlin was named as head coach of the All-Star team.

BASKETBALL

The boys of the basketball team have hung up their sneakers after one of the most trying seasons ever experienced at P.H.S. It was discouraging not only in losing all their games, but in missing the breaks needed to win occasionally. At the beginning of the season, when the outcome was in the stage of prediction, the Peabody Five loomed as one of the leading contenders for the Essex County crown, but Lady Luck had different ideas.

Six of our games found the final score within five points and yet our quintet didn't come out on top once. One point licked us in the Lynn English and Haverhill games. These scores proved that the P.H.S. Five needed but one break, a turn of fortune that never came.

The team under Coach Charlie Cook and Assistant Coach Ed Donahue practiced hard and played the game that way. Every game found our "basketeers" trying their best to pull the game out of the fire, but to no avail.

A fine tribute was paid to P. H. S. when Coach Cook was chosen to lead the All-Star team in the game against Salem High School. John Semenuk, our high-scoring forward, was chosen to play with the team.

Members of the class of '52 that played for our team this year were: Co-Capt. Paul Higgins, Co-Capt. Steve Sarowsky, John Semenuk, Arthur McCarthy, Bob Parsons, Nick Grevelis and Manny Tsouvalas.

BASEBALL

In spring, a young man's fancy turns to . . . baseball. At the time of this writing, as the new season is hardly under way, it is impossible to offer statistics. It is safe, however, to say that the outlook for this year's team is excellent.

With capable leadership, like that of Captain Barry O'Connell, it is no wonder that the team seems to be headed for the top.

Under the guidance of Coach John Bezemes and Ass't Coach Ed Donahue, the drive by the team for the championship will be headed chiefly by seniors. The most experienced man of the infield is Paul Higgins, our senior first baseman. In the outfield, Art McCarthy, John Semenuk and Steve Sarowsky, when not pitching, are the boys of whom much is expected.

With the seniors forming the nucleus of the team and spearheading the victories of the Blue and White nine, noteworthy success can truly be expected in the current campaign on the diamond.

Members of the class of '52 that will play their last games for Peabody High School this year are: Captain Barry O'Connell, Art McCarthy, John Semenuk, Steve Sarowsky, Paul Higgins, Howie Alexuk, Dave Price, Nick Grevelis, Joe Fabrizio and Lou Bernstein.

TRACK

The cinders are flying as Coach Tom McCarthy is preparing his charges for the forthcoming track season. Since the season is hardly under way, only a pre-season prediction can be offered.

Leading the team this year is Captain Dan Ferriera. Dan turned in an excellent performance last year and Coach McCarthy is confident that he will continue his fine work. The high jump and 220 are the events in which Dan will participate.

Al Rikkola is the Tanner's key man in the 440 and also in the high jump. Coach McCarthy considers Al as one of his most dependable candidates and expects him to pile up many points for the Blue and White.

Jim LaPointe and Pete Roumeliotis, the other senior candidates, will certainly add to Peabody's totals.

The outlook of our track team is bright and the entire student body is looking forward to a successful year.

GOLF

Since the season has not yet begun, a forecast of the coming season must be made on pre-game reports.

This year's team, under the direction of our new coach Bob McCarthy, expects much from Dan Maney, a member of the senior class. Dan was awarded the Jimmy Flattery trophy last year and it is hoped that he will register the points for P.H.S. as he did in the previous season.

A new team as well as a new coach has reported this year and the expected starters will not be entirely composed of veterans.

Members of the senior class who will represent Peabody on the fairways this year will be Captain Dan Maney, Fred Hunt and Bobby Parsons.

Vontzalides, L. Lourenco, S. Sedlier, C. Nekelopoulas, A. Marchuk, C. Ampeliotis, P. Cavanaugh, B. Karra, E. Vorgeas.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

This year the girls were unable to carry on as extensive an athletic program as in previous years. Daily practice sessions of the boys' basketball team and the inter-class teams caused Miss McNamara to abandon her plans for a Girls' Varsity Team. Seniors who were on the squad in other years were: Lydia Lourenco, Barbara Crean, Joan Karra, Joanne Bell, Barbara Karra, Ann Lightizer, Jean Pare, and Sonia Sedlier.

Nevertheless the girls managed to organize an Apparatus Club, including mat work and group gymnastics.

After a long Winter, Spring finally arrived and with it the rains. Thus, unfortunately, the ball field was transformed into a sea of mud preventing any possibility of organizing a softball team.

The advent of Spring also brings the usual excitement of choosing next year's cheerleaders. As we pass on the familiar blue and white uniforms our thoughts are filled with fond recollections of last year's football season. We remember those days when we contributed our moral and vocal support as the happiest times of our High School careers. Although it was not a very successful season, the fans who remained loyal witnessed a fine dislay of sportsmanship and spirit.

We offer our congratulations to the newly elected cheerleaders with the wish that their efforts will be as well received by the fans and that they, too, will enjoy the warm friendly spirit experienced by the cheerleaders of the Class of '52.

AFTERWORD

And now what of the future? The time has come for us to say good-bye to our high school that we have all learned to love and respect. We are just ready to reach for that goal toward which we have been striving so earnestly. We leave as graduates of Peabody High School. Do we fully realize the responsibility that is ours?

Each of us will now commence his chosen task in life. Each will begin a journey that must be taken alone. Each will encounter problems that must be solved individually. Whatever difficulties may be ahead, whatever tasks may confront us, the knowledge and courage and skill which have become ours in these past four years will stand us in good stead.

It is our sincere wish that at some time in the not too distant future we may enjoy the privilege of meeting again amid the old familiar scenes. As the years pass, time may weaken our memories of each other; names may be forgotten as distance separate us one from another. Neither time nor distance, however, will dim our fond memories of the teachers whose inspiration we shall never forget, nor of an Alma Mater toward which our loyalty will never diminish.
